"Michigan in the War" is now being delivered to soldiers who have applied for it. Any Michigan soldier can obtain the book by applying to Adjutant Gen. Robertson at Lansing, at a cost of 32 cents to pay express.

Capt. Smith has put fire proof shutters on the rear of his store building, a very desirable improvement. Every brick store in town ought to receive the same treatment; it would add greatly to the safety of the town.

Judge Hilton has specimens of the tickets voted in Boston at the last election. They are curiosities in the ticket line, being about five inches wide and a foot long, ornamented with fancy letters, scroll work pictures of Old Ben Butler, etc.

We publish the county canvass complete in another column, except that we give only the Governor and Lieut. Governor, on the State ticket. The balance of the State officers run about the same as Lieut. Governor, except that Cochran being on the prohibition ticket is somewhat ahead.

Died, in this village, on Wednesday morning, Nov. 15th inst., Mrs. Gertrude Bradt, wife of Prof. Eugene Bradt. Mrs. Bradt was a Paw Paw girl, educated here, and formerly a teacher in our Union School. She was known to nearly all our citizens, and respected and loved by all who knew her. The sympathy of the entire community goes out for the bereaved husband and parents of the deceased. How often are we reminded that "Death loves a shining mark."

Minnie Foster's Uncle Tom's Cabin Company will exhibit at the Opera House this (Friday) evening. They come very highly recommended. They have traveled extensively in the east, and the columns of the press of that section contain many allusions to the troupe. Uncle Tom is one of the few modern dramas that never wear out, and we doubt not those who attend will be pleased with their evening's entertainment. Read their advertisement in another column. Tickets for sale at Chappell's.

An increasing interest in literary pursuits proves that our social condition is not retrograding. The Ladies' General History Class, which last year pursued their readings somewhat after the Chatanquan plan, is still flourishing. The reading circle organized last winter by the teachers of our Union School, has made several additions to its membership, and is now cultivating a more extended acquaintance with Walter Scott. Still another association has been formed which is styled the Paw Paw Teachers' Literary Club. This club, as its name implies, is composed of the teachers of the village, though we believe it is not to be exclusively confined within the limits of this fraternity. Their first readings will be from Shakespeare.

On Saturday last, at the invitation of the managers of the "Narrow Gauge," we accompanied an excursion party, with the first passenger train over the new road to Hartford. The party consisted of a large number of ladies and gentlemen from Lawton, Paw Paw, and Lawrence. The train left Paw Paw about 3 o'clock p. m., stopped for half an hour at Lawrence and arrived at Hartford at half past four. An immense concourse of the citizens of Hartford, with banners flying and band playing, met the excursionists, at the present terminus of the road, which is on Center street about forty rods directly north of Phelps' store. The train remained at Hartford about an hour and a half, giving the visitors an opportunity to fully explore the pleasant and flourishing town which now constitutes the western terminus of the road. The party returned home well pleased with the trip, arriving at Paw Paw at half past seven o'clock. The new road for most of the way is in excellent condition. Two gangs of workmen are busy ballasting the track, and Mr. Hiling says as soon as that is completed, which will be in a few days, regular trains will be put on the road. This enterprise adds largely to the railroad facilities of our county.

Elder Ebert has gone to Creston, Iowa, from which place he has received a call. Should he accept the propositions made him, he will remove his family there, after a few weeks.

Capt. E. Smith has received a lot of clams, codfish, mackerel, and blackfish from his brother Elisha, at Niantic, Conn. It is a splendid thing to have a brother Lish, down east, aint it Cap?

Died, at his residence in Antwerp, where he has resided for the past 40 years, on Sunday morning, Nov. 12th, 1882, Ezra Gates, at the advanced age of 82 years, 5 months and 8 days. Mr. Gates was one of the old pioneers of Van Buren county. He was a native of Virginia. He leaves a widow surviving him to whom he was married 54 years ago next Christmas. He also leaves six surviving children, five of whom were present at the funeral, the other one arriving subsequently. Mr. Gates was well and favorably known, and will be sadly missed in the community.

Boyesen, and a long list of novelists. Entertaining short stories and novelettes will be among the leading features of THE CENTURY, as heretofore, and the magazine will continue its advance in general excellence.

The subscription price is $4.00 a year; 35 cents a number. Subscriptions should be sent to the November number, and to enable new subscribers to commence with the new series under THE CENTURY name, we make the following special offer: A year's subscription from Nov. 1882, and the twelve numbers of the past year, unbound, $6.00.
